ISIS

ISIS is the acronym for the Imperial Security and Intelligence Service.

ISIS operates both in Aristasia Pura and Aristasia-in-Telluria and there is close liaison between the two branches.

ISIS in Telluria is empowered to deputize "lay agents" - Aristasian sympathizers who are not otherwise part of the military who act in the capacity of intelligence agents for ISIS.

ISIS is responsible for security in both virtual and physical Aristasia-in-Telluria and has a reputation for its good intelligence network and rapid response to security problems of all types.

The motto of ISIS in Telluria has become well known and is virtually a catchphrase in Aristasian circles:

ISIS is watching over you.
